

World Day Of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims Sunday 16th November 2014

“To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.”

— Thomas Campbell

Sunday 16th November has been declared as World Day of Remembrance by the UN, in order to create awareness of the high levels of roads accidents. You are invited to join us as we will remembering those who have passed away, offer support to survivors & families and reaffirm our personal commitments to make the roads safer.

Guest speaker: Mr Ismail Vadi, MEC for Roads and Transport

A member of the community of Lenasia will also share personal experiences and reflections on being a survivor of road accidents. The afternoon will be concluded by a special meditation by Sr Pratiba of the Brahma Kumaris.

Sunday, 16th November 2014 from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m.
