

Dr Owizz Simeon Koroma
Guest Lecturer
The Country's only pathologist

He was in the Northern Town of Makeni He attended the Our Lady of Fatima Roman Catholic Primary School and later the West African Collegiate and Prince Of Wales Secondary Schools respectively. Our guest of honour attended the following higher education institutions between 1966 and 1997.

DR. OWIZZ SIMEON KOROMA

Fourah Bay College
Odessa State Medical institute
Examine Medical Board in the United Kingdom
Royal College of Pathologists
London Hospital Medical College
Royal Tropical Institute Amsterdam
International European Examine
Board
International and European body
Chartered Institute of Environmental Health

EMPLOYMENT RECORD

Our guest of honour has over forty (40) years of working experience serving in various hospitals both in Sierra Leone, the Gambia, United Kingdom, the Netherlands and Canada

Our guest of honour is a member of the following professional organisation

Sierra Leone Medical and Dental council

Medical Defence Union UK

General Medical Council UK

The Gambia Medical and Dental Council

Our guest honour inspite of his academic pursuit he also excelled in the field of sports which later led him to serve as the first captain in the Sierra Leone Athletic team to the University Games in Ibadan, Nigeria. Between 1964 to 1966 our guest of honour was the fastest sprinter in Sierra Leone.

In recognition of his excellent performance in his various fields of endeavours he was awarded as grand officer of the Order of Rokel by the Government of Sierra Leone in 1997. During his student days in 1966, he also won the Common Wealth Secretariat Award. Our guest of Honour is a qualified and competent medical officer. He is seasoned Histopathologist, cytopathologist and Forensic pathologist.

He is well organised, adaptable, discipline and dependable. He possesses a good sense of humour.

He has a long history of lecturing in the University and performing high profile autopsies of UN and International Significance.

Our guest of honour is a serving member of Sierra Leone Police with the rank of Chief Superintendent

He is among the 25 best pathologists in the world.

Our guest lecturer who is a prince from the Sela Limba Chiefdom and hoping to be a Paramount Chief some day is married with four children.