

The World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims (WDR)

WDR is commemorated on the third Sunday of November each year - to remember the many millions killed and injured on the world's roads, together with their families, friends and many others who are also affected. It is also a Day on which we thank the emergency services and reflect on the tremendous burden and cost of this daily continuing disaster to families, communities and countries, and on ways to halt it.

On Sunday, November 19, 2017, as people across the globe, observe the World Day of Remembrance (WDR) declared by the United Nations, the Brahma Kumaris is dedicating their International Meditation Hour (16:00-17:00 local time) in observance of this day.

We invite you to join us for a meditative evening, as we extend the power of our good wishes to those who have been directly or indirectly affected by road accidents.
